Walt Whitman

Walt

It was great knowing you this year again. You've been a great friend. Next year, we'll be able to go out to lunch next year legally. Call me up during the summer and I'll try to find some house to fix or paint. We can get together some time over the summer. See you next year.

Kevin

Walt,
It was fun
this year although there were times when it was so fun. Next year
I don't know what we are going to do with you. One you'll be driving and a danger to the road (luck you fuck ↗). Two Barb won't be here to keep you calm. (Poor walt)(Bob) One more thing don't be counting on me next year. Good luck at your interview. Enjoy the summer.

[illegible]

Walt,
I really enjoyed the classes we had together, Except Physics
You really should have played speed ball. Thanks for the pictures, too, they are being put to good use. Have fun
but don't get caught

Greg
Gagnon

Walt
you are a good one!
We had fun at the show
Good luck
[illegible]

WALT,

AREN'T YOU THE LUCKY ONE! I MEAN
HAVING THE PRIVILEDGE OF ME SIGNING
YOUR BOOK. SERIOUSLY, IT'S MY PRIVILEDGE.
YOU ARE A VERY CONSIDERATE PERSON WHO DESERVES A SUCCESSFUL HAPPY
LIFE. I WISH ALL THE BEST FOR YOU,
NOW, NEXT YEAR + FOREVER. TAKE GOOD CARE OF BARB, BECAUSE SHE'S YOUR EQUAL.

WARM
ANNE
:)

1980

Dear Walt,

If someone had asked me in 10th grade if I would be going out with you I would have sworn never. Its strange how people meet and become attracted to one another. In my opinion it was well worth getting in trouble in Latin because in the end I got you!! Actually, we have Mrs. McKee to thank. If she hadn't been such a nurd we wouldn't have had the chance to make each other laugh!

We had a lot of wonderful times together at Lawrence High. You know, in my 3 years there I never used my real locker! Our locker will always be extra-special to me though, it was sort of a ~~mini~~ - apartment for us!

I can remember when you first wanted to ask me out, how innocent and nervous you were. I think thats why I did decide to help with the play. In a sea of guys who had been around, you came through as being so earnest and sincere. I feel our relationship is so strong because we have grown and learned together about love and life. They say your first love is your truest one and I know that neither one of us could ever experience with anyone else as pure a love as you and I share.

Walt, you've added so much to my life. I never realized how empty I was before I knew you. Life is so short and people should take every opportunity to make every moment as happy as possible for others. Thank you for giving me a lifetime of happiness in a span of a year and a half.

I know I don't always take the time to show you the love I have in my heart, and I am sorry. But please understand that it's not that I don't care, neither its my inability to always express all my true feelings, I really do love you and cherish your love with all my heart and soul.

I consider you my best friend and place in your trust thoughts and feelings I would never share with anyone else. Walt, you are the best thing that's ever happened to me and I would wait till the end of time for you. My love for you is as boundless as the sea; The more I give to you the more I have, for both are infinite.

Lovingly and Faithfully Yours Always,

Barbara Ann

P.S. I hope your dream comes true!

GREETINGS TO THE CLASS OF 1980!

Let us be the first to congratulate you as you finish your high school years. Your years at Lawrence High School have helped prepare you for the future — a future filled with promise, changes and challenges. We hope that as you become responsible for your own actions, you will also become responsible for the society in which you will live.

We challenge you to continue to strive for excellence in all that you do. Do not be satisfied with amiable mediocrity. Insist on the best. In your insistence, also be compassionate and sensitive to the needs of others. Always make the human and personal values — the concern for the individual — your priority.

We are delighted that as administrators we have played a role in your high school experience. It has been a privilege and pleasure to have had the opportunity to work with the Class of 1980.

Bobby overhears some juicy gossip.

These can't be Lawrence High cheerleaders.

Hey Ann, going on the ski-trip?

See what weightlifting can do for your biceps.

Wash your hair much?!

Some people are too cheap to pay for a lousy ticket.

I wonder what Bobby's praying for?

MORE SENIOR SMIRKS

Two tough looking thugs.

I always wanted to be a ballerina.

The "Bo Derek" issue of Playboy is very popular.

Deanna! My shorts are too tight!

Wedgie!

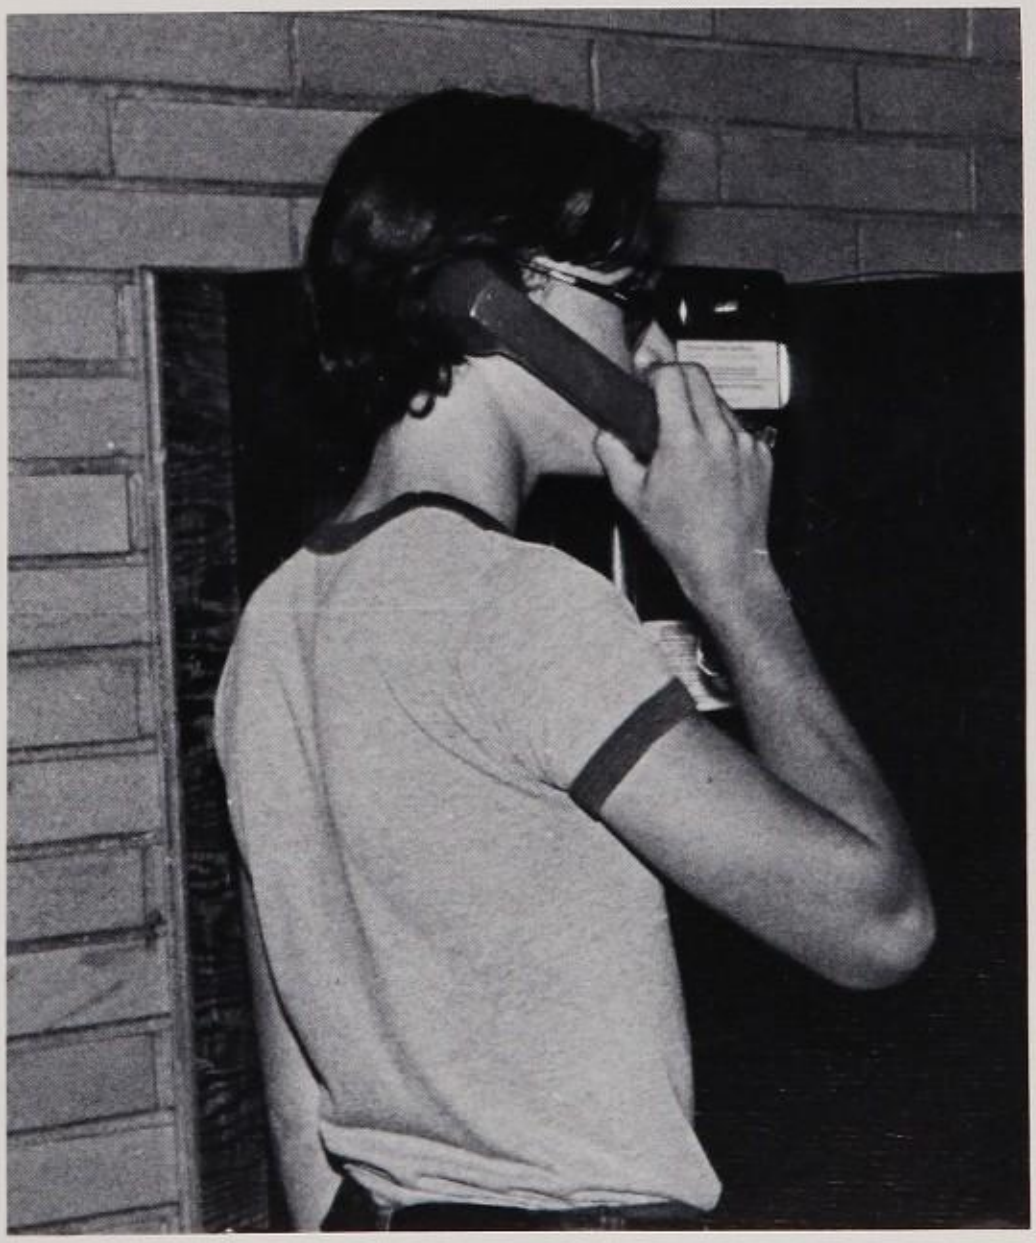
Look Ma, no cavities!

"I know what ya mean!" "John, I like the way you said that."

Suzanne! Stop that!

I don't mean to brag but, I can . . .

These are definitely "Not" Lawrence High cheerleaders.



"Hello, is this dial a prayer?"

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Film Club, leave Bob Maloney a lifetime supply of Heinekin for all the grief we have caused him.

I, Rich Crum, leave Bob Bartoletti the pads of blue, green, yellow, and pink slips I've been selling to underclassmen since 10th grade to admit them to classes they shouldn't have missed.

I, Robbie Howard, leave the attendence office all my notes used to sign in school late.

We, L.B. and N.P., leave Mr. Saetta two rather strange girls to talk about nothing but sex during his 6th period Creative Writing class.

I, Scott Balyer will: Try not to fall asleep during Mr. Nickol's death lectures, stop yelling in the halls, cut my nap around last period to ten minutes, leave Mr. Bartoletti to anyone who's willing to take him, and leave Lawrence High with irreplaceable memories.

I, David Leftwich, leave Mr. Martin Paulson the last of the Minorities.

We, conductors of Amtrak, leave "Yippie yi yoo" a free 1st class one way ticket.

We, Frank, Jim, and Steve, leave Gary Vinch an extension because he's not in our class.

We, the 4th period APE class, leave Mrs. Venanzi a lifetime subscription to "True Romance".

I, Jackie Johnson, leave Cindy Caserta our secrecy of "Rummle".

I, "The Butless Wonder", leave all the "Gorfs" one good look at my behind since the pictures came out under-exposed.

I, Theano Muzithras, leave Mr. Nickol courage, so that he can face death when it comes.

I, Dave DeNoma, leave Jackie, Anne, Jan, Dawn, and Kurt a free trip to the Philadelphia McDonalds to see the "Shawl" of Iran, Mr. Nickle, and "Big" Ben.

I, Ken Ericson, leave Mr. Weister a pair of shorts with pockets so he can have somewhere else to put his hands.

I, Joe Finney, leave Fort Knox as secure as it ever was.

I, Gregg Hill, leave the Junior Class one Jeff Moran.

I, Donna Walker, leave Rose Edwards all the junk in our hall and Gym lockers.

I, Dave DeNoma, leave all the girls in Lawrence High in "Good Terms".

I, Ken Ericson, leave Mr. Nickol a case of "Pink eye".

I, Michelle, leave Mike as friends.

I, Maryanne Lashutka, leave Mrs. Coxon all of my crutches, ace bandages, and ice packs for the future clutz.

We, Soupy, Stubby, Sim, Scoop, Skits, Sleepy, Roy, T.J., and Guido, leave Robert Spiegel a nickname.

I, Dave Schrum, leave a bottle of Jack Daniels to Rich, Darwin, John, T, Kenny, Jeff, and Patty.

I, Paisan, leave Henry Toto a wire brush for his mold.

I, Anonymous, leave Mr. Devlin a taperecorder so he can hear himself and see the agony we students must go through.

We, the Senior boys, leave Barb Karel a personality.

I, Jon Leibowitz, leave Dave DeNoma a behind since he has none.

I, Gary Vinch, leave Lawrence High my beer drinking and Quarters playing abilities.

I, Kevin Cook, leave Mark Goebel at the Mall.

We, the Bu crew, leave the Pillsbury Dough Boy a lifetime membership to the Adam and Eve Spa.

I, Frank Immordino, leave Mr. Robert Bartoletti a free funeral.

I, Frank Immordino, leave Mr. Larry Nickol all my Funeral Directing knowledge and a free funeral.

I, Steve Sabo, leave Mr. Ed Niewiadomski a case of Molson Brador and April's phone# for personal pleasure.

I, Mr. Roberts, leave Bob Spiegel a cheese pranis, sure.

I, Vicki Chianese, leave Claudia Peterson John whats his name.

I, Jackie Johnson, leave Dave DeNoma a welcome mat so he can cover up in the future.

I, Robert Yatvin, leave my abilities and charm to those kids in the class of 1980. They will never have my skill, but they can try.

We, B.B. and J.A., leave Mr. Nickol a years subscription to "Sex and Death Illustrated".

We, Eve, Frances, and Margaret leave Mrs. T. all our oomph and finesse in basketball.

I, Mike Faith, leave Dave DeNoma in "Good Terms".

We, Mrs. DeHeus's 7th period Calculus class, leave next years class several cases of "No-Doze".

I, Ming Tai, leave Dr. J. Weber, eye specialist, some dirt for her name and ice cream with my blackberry brandy, and a bike ride to Oz!

I, a non-brainy act, leave Adam Bethea a brain for those times when I get him confused.

I, B, leave.

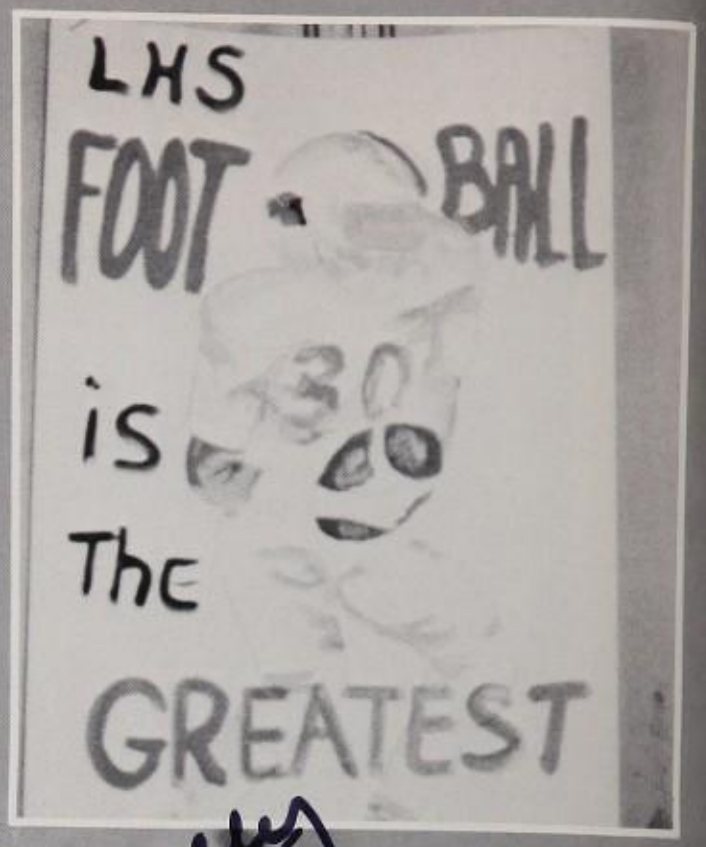
STUDENT SPIRIT



Walt, what can
I say to a jerk!
Well what a jerk. You are Really only a kidding. I'm so a really great guy. I'm friends. I really glad that we this year and had a great year together ... Fantastic the prom was a great summer ... I guess
We all had to get again at the shore.
a great summer. Have nothing better and Band Have me a call at LHS to do come up to good old come up to see me. call 883-9307
I'll be here.
Have a nice Summer
Love always
Love ya

A POEM FOR SPECTATORS

So, you can't run cross country
And football, is not your stick,
A tennis match is not your bag
Your reflexes aren't too quick.

You don't dig playing soccer
Field Hockey, is definitely out
You would try, for cheerleader
But you're just a wee bit stout.

You dream of earning a letter
Never had the nerve to try
Next season, take a fling
With the spirit of do or die.

Wait! there is something you can do,
That will make the teams quite glad.
Stand up, and shout, Cardinals!, Cardinals!
You're gonna be; the best teams we've ever had.

Jill always tries to be a step ahead of her opponents.

Jenny has to learn not to be afraid of the ball.

Wiaczek was the mainstay of a Lawrence defense that carried the Cardinals to the Central Jersey Group Two championship game . . . Trentonian.

Junior Varsity. Front row: Captains K. Doerler, G. Goldenbaum, D. Cowan. Middle row: P. Murphy, A. Levy, L. Walton, D. Radice. Back row: Coach Glover, T. O'Brian, K. Solack, J. Feinberg, D. Calderone, C. Bartaris, C. Forker, G. Brown.

Ann shows perfect form.

Darn! Missed again.

Laura Barrall . . . Coach of the Year

See, I told you I could beat you with my eyes closed.

No one will score off me with my reputation.

We wanna play too!

She must play Halfback.

I wonder if Nancy Lopez started out this way?

I'm gonna hit it this time!

BOY'S SOCCER SETS GOALS FOR FUTURE

FRANK TYSIAK NAMED SACRED COW 1980

At formal ceremonies held today at Halo Farm, Frank Tysiak was inducted into the Holy Order of the Sacred Cow. This rare and treasured honor means, that for the rest of his natural born days, Frank is above criticism... from anyone, faculty, and staff alike. Mr. Tysiak accepted the honor wearing the traditional wings and gown and said simply, "I really don't need this protection. I can't remember the last time I was criticized." The Sacred Trust, a beautiful scroll, was presented by the Holy Bull with the Herd of Sacred Trustees in attendance.

Cheers — '80! Pat & Bill Metzger

Creating this year's Chrysalis was probably one of the hardest things I have ever done, also the most enjoyable. When deadlines came around it was pure hell trying to get everything completed the night before. I usually went to Jackie Johnson's house where Jackie, Anne Beairsto, and I would do lay-outs. See, I told you it was fun! I am amazed at all the work that I and the handful (Boy! What a handful) of editors accomplished.

The Chrysalis editors are a group of people who deserve much credit for their work. They gave up many free hours of their social lives to dedicate themselves to making this yearbook the best they could. I can safely say they achieved their goal. Jackie Johnson, one of our two Senior editors, did an outstanding job. Besides brightening our meetings with her everlasting smile and charm, she kept a cool head in times of pressure. This made her a necessary asset to the production of the book. Anne Beairsto, our other Senior editor, was an inspiration to us all. Her abilities and warm personality made it a joy to work with her. The sports section was edited by Steven Doerler. Steve's knowledge and interest in sports made it the best section in the year's edition. Our Faculty editors, Heather McNally and Dorothy Pelovitz, did a commendable job on their section without any outside help. Tim Smith is responsible for this year's interestingly created Student Life section. Tim made his section stand out with the use of his active imagination. Cathie Lownie made her section come alive, something which is very hard for underclassmen to do. The art in the Chrysalis is magnificent, thanks to Brenda Byrne. She did a fabulous job with the cover and all of the internal artwork. The quality of her work is evident on the title page, the contents pages, and all of the dividers. I would also like to thank Deanna Gianinnoto for her typing skills which we so desparately needed.

What can I say about our advisor Mr. Saetta? He is the most understanding teacher, boss, and friend a person could want! His sparkling personality and great wit make him the ideal advisor for a yearbook. He never got mad at people outwardly, he is too good a person to do this. If he did he probably would be furious with me for all the things I've done. I'm glad that we have him and I think you should feel privileged to have him as a teacher.

Aside from the people directly involved with the construction of the yearbook, I would like to thank certain secretaries for their willingness to provide assistance. Mrs. Lauffer and her Business Staff deserve a special vote of gratitude. They worked extremely hard on selling yearbooks and acquiring ads for the Ads & Patrons department.

Well, it's time to apologize. If any of the captions of pictures offend you, it was not meant to be that way. I tried not only to make this book a pictorial history of the 1979-80 school year, but also entertaining to you the reader. So forgive me if you have been insulted in any way. So, without further ado, we give you 1980 Chrysalis.

Walter

Sorry I annoyed you by calling you that. Well - it didn't hurt any classes this year - lucky for me cause you couldn't train two of me - but it was great writing you notes on the geometry desk - (hopefully I passed!) Take care + hopefully I'll see you this summer - and you better write next year!

Love Always,
Jenny
